

See Sedona!

Full-day excursion from Flagstaff with three
Sightseeing options

Visit this unique geological area that has mesmerized tourists for decades.

Travel south through scenic Oak Creek Canyon to the colorful Sedona and see the red-rock monoliths named Coffeepot, Cathedral and Bell – even Snoopy – because their massive shapes resemble these distinctive objects.

Choose from three sightseeing options:

Broken Arrow Jeep Excursion

Upon arrival in Sedona, board a 4x4 jeep for a two-hour backcountry adventure. The thrilling ride takes you over rugged trails and down the “Road of No Return”. This excursion exceeds all expectations every time! Then enjoy free time in Sedona for lunch and sightseeing.

$150/person, $125 children under age 12

Scenic Rim Tour

This scenic jeep trip offers a smoother ride, traveling to the top of the Mogollon Rim. Admire the majestic red rock formations and views of the lowland desert as you drive through the pine forests. Fabulous photo opportunities during this 1½ hour tour! Afterward, enjoy free time for lunch and sightseeing in Sedona. $125/person, $115 children under age 12

Galleries, Boutiques & Craft Shops

Starting in uptown Sedona, explore the wide selection of Native American jewelry, rugs, pots and art. New Age, modern and classic shopping opportunities abound. Then take the Sedona Trolley to Tlaquepaque, a picturesque arts and crafts village featuring 45 galleries, shops and restaurants. The Trolley can also take you to the Oak Creek Factory Outlet, to Enchantment for hiking in Boynton Canyon, or to the Chapel of the Holy Cross. Enjoy a full day of leisure in beautiful Sedona. $75/person
